

ASISV FOUNDATION

WAGEXWISE

FINANCIAL LITERACY FOR THE WORKFORCE

LEARN TO MANAGE YOUR MONEY ON WHATSAPP

COVID-19 has changed our lives and affected our finances. We are more financially stressed than ever before. We have been reminded of the importance of emergency savings. Now more than ever before, we need to take control of our finances.

If this sounds like you SIGN UP NOW on the WageWise WhatsApp Channel and start taking back control.

ARE YOU ON TOP OF THESE?

- Your budgeting – managing money in and money out.
- Your payslip – what are all these deductions?
- Managing your credit – borrowing smarter
- Managing debt – what to do if over-indebted.
- Saving for your goals
- Understanding insurance
- Retirement savings
- Money and your mental health

This is an exciting financial education programme that will give you the tools to cope better with your finances.

HOW DOES IT WORK?

1 Everything is available on WhatsApp on your phone.

2 You can complete the eight modules from wherever you are, whenever it suits you.

HOW MUCH TIME WILL THIS REQUIRE?

Each module can be completed in

5-8 minutes

BENEFITS

- It's fun, with short videos, and you can choose from four languages (English, IsiXhosa, isiZulu, Setswana).
- You can win awesome prizes of data and more.
- When you complete the learning journey, you will receive a certificate of completion.

WHO CAN PARTICIPATE?

Employees in various sectors, union members and candidates on learnerships. Interested employees to liaise with their HR to sign up and see if they qualify.

REGISTRATION

In line with the requirements of the ASISA Foundation as a BBBEE contributor and the Financial Sector Code, we require evidence that we collect via our registration process to prove participation in our programmes. The information will be processed in line with POPIA guidelines as protecting all personal information is very important to the ASISA Foundation. Please read our privacy policy on our website www.asisafoundation.org.za.

